DETAILED ACTION

1. It is noted by the Examiner that claim 2 is set forth as a “screen printing apparatus...comprising”. However, the body of the claim fails to set forth any structural limitations associated with an apparatus claim and instead recites a plurality of method steps. Therefore, the Examiner has assumed that applicant intended for the claim to be drawn to a screen printing process. Additionally, it is noted that claim 3 is also directed to a screen printing apparatus. However, again the body of the claim recites only a plurality of method steps for manufacturing a container used in the printing apparatus. Therefore the Examiner has assumed that claim 3 is intended to be drawn to a method of manufacture.

Election/Restrictions

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
- I. Claim 2, drawn to a process for screen printing, classified in class 101, subclass 129.
 - II. Claim 3, drawn to a method of manufacturing a container, classified in class 222, subclass 92.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Art Unit: 2854

3. Inventions II and III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention III has separate utility such as a process for making a cartridge for holding any desired fluid material, such as adhesive, ink, paint, etc. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group III is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

9. A telephone call was made to Joseph Zito on January 29, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
